Sir: Referring to your letter of July 17, 1896 to Mr Chee Sun, and his application for passport of June 30. I beg to state I have filled in the limitation to wit. "for two years"

The identifying witness Mr Wah Jong Ho, is an American citizen, and to whom you issued a passport about six weeks ago. He is a qualified voter in this city.

It is difficult to get Americans to make the necessary statement, for the reason that few outside of physicians know anything about the birth of Chinese children. Please send the passport to my address as before & oblige

Enclose application

Dear Prof Deunth:-
A cousin of Mrs Hinkles has decided to sail with us for Germany, and I secured ~~her~~ by telegraph, - the other berth in my room (73) - for her, and instructed Mr Lewis to send her ticket to her address at Oberlin, O. - in your care - so do not be surprised to receive it any time. Her name is Keo Jordan, and a very sweet girl, about my age. - She goes to study in Leipzig also.
I wired for application

Passport yesterday, and when it is filled out & returned, my brother advises her to have it sent her, ~~at~~ to New York City - the General Delivery framing the time too limited for her to receive it in Oberlin. My brother thinks it will be perfectly safe to do so, that is, have it sent her to New York City. - Do you not think so? - or can you suggest a better way -

I leave here next Friday eve. for Chicago - leave there Sat. night for Oberlin arriving there in the morning, I suppose. I have ordered my steamer trunk & expect it to-morrow.

Dear Sir:-

Herewith I have the honor to forward the application of Gee Jung, a Native and Loyal Citizen of the United States, for a Passport, who recently returned from China, as his right to enter the United States was adjudicated before U.S. Commissioner Felix W.
 Settrick, on the 31st of July last at the U.S.
 Court House, at St. Albans, Vermont.

To save your question being raised as to the legal right of Gee Jung to a Passport, as a Native Citizen of the United States, I enclose the official certificate of said Commissioner before whom the question of the Citizenship of Gee Jung and his right to remain in the United States was judicially determined.

Very respectfully,

Gentlemen

In reply to your esteemed favor of January 24/1896, addressed to Ferdinand Day and referring to <sup>his</sup> previous letters on the subject of his citizenship and an application for a passport, I beg leave to state that I am a brother of Ferdinand Day, that he was called away to Europe on business and that before leaving he filled out the enclosed application for a passport requesting me to forward the same to you with the statutory fee of $1.50 for which amount I now enclose Postal Money Order No 6621, as soon as I should receive possession of the proof of naturalization of his father. This proof I also enclose showing that Ignatius D. Day was naturalized on October 7th 1853; I furthermore enclose a passport proving that the said Ignatius D. Day retained his citizenship as late as 1890.

I trust these papers will prove sufficient to issue the passport as and would request that you send the passport to me or I can forward it to my brother.
